

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2021-2022 Year in Review Now Available Online

BELLAIRE, TX (February 2, 2023) – Neuhaus Education Center is pleased to announce the release of its year in review for the year 2021-2022. This comprehensive report highlights the organization's financial performance, key achievements, and programs and services in promoting Literacy for All.

The review, which is available on www.neuhaus.org, provides a transparent overview of the organization's intentional investment in reading success. It also offers insight into the organization's philanthropic efforts, as well its commitment to laying the groundwork for sustainable change in practice-based professional development.

"We are proud to share our year in review with our stakeholders," said Dr. Tracy White Weeden, President and CEO. "It serves as a testament to the hard work and dedication of our team and reflects our commitment in making life-changing and lifesaving work possible."

The year in review is an essential resource for donors and other stakeholders who are interested in learning more about Neuhaus Education Center's financial health and prospects.
