

“Hints from Hailey” Video Series Neuhaus Education Center

“Hints from Hailey” is a series of videos that dives in to each component of Neuhaus Reading Readiness (RR), Accurate and Automatic Reading (AAR), and Oral Language and Listening Comprehension (OLLC). These short video clips are intended for teachers, instructional coaches, and administrators who have already been trained by Neuhaus instructors and are seeking to improve their knowledge and use of Neuhaus curriculum so that students will become successful readers. The videos can be accessed by clicking the links in this document or at

Ideas for use:

- Teachers could watch a video or videos individually when they want to increase their understanding and skills related to a certain component of RR, AAR, or OLLC.
- Coaches or administrators could watch a video or videos individual when they want to increase their understanding and skills related to a certain component of RR, AAR, or OLLC in order to better support teachers’ implementation of Neuhaus on their campus.
- Coaches or administrators could assign a teacher to watch a video or videos based on an observation, question, or discussion. Follow up conversations can be held between the coach/administrator and the teacher related to what was learned from the video and what the teacher will implement in the classroom.
- Grade level or teaching teams could watch a video together in a planning meeting or PLC and discuss and debrief as a team what was learned from the video and what teachers will implement in the classroom.

Handouts:
